

FLOW CHART WITH NO MINOR CHILDREN

Step A. Petition for Dissolution of Marriage or Legal Separation

Step B. Service of Summons or spouse signs waiver of service.

Step C. Statutory 90 day waiting period begins once the Summons has been properly completed. (Most cases take longer than 90 days to be final)

Step D. Forms that are to be completed after Service of Summons is done or waiver is signed.

1. Sworn Financial Statement/ Disclosures. Due 45 days after service.

Step E. Mandatory Initial Status Conference to occur within 45 days of Service, or Stipulated Case Management Order.

Step F. Temporary Orders Hearing if requested by either party.

Step G. Mandatory Mediation to be completed prior to any Court hearing.

Step H. After the statutory 90 day waiting period, and if agreements reached on all issues, parties may file the documents to complete your divorce/legal separation.

Step I. Final Orders Hearing

Uncontested

1. Affidavit for Decree without appearance of parties.
2. Proposed Decree for Dissolution of Marriage or Legal Separation
3. Separation Agreement
4. Support Order (if Maintenance is involved)

Contested

1. Notice to set Final Orders
2. Parties must comply with Case Management Order issued at time of setting.
3. Proposed Separation Agreement
4. Support Order (if Maintenance is involved)